

Come the week before New Year
When the goods have been dropped
When the toasts have been toasted
When the shoppers have shopped
That is a good time for you to adopt
A reclining position, your feet nicely propped
Dreaming of summer out back in the shade
Fishin' poles and swimmin' holes and small town parades
To thank you for being a part of our team
We'd like to start you on your summer dream
And though we're just starting to feel winter's chill
It's never too early to fire up the grill!

Happy Holidays!
